

Key Facts

25,714 km

the total route length of the road network

78%

the percentage of rural roads

22%

the percentage of urban roads

£1.2 billion

the current estimated amount of expenditure required to clear the backlog of structural maintenance

£143 million

the annual funding required to maintain the road network in a steady and sustainable state

£92 million

the average annual funding spent on structural maintenance allocated over the past five years

£51 million

the average additional funding required each year to maintain the road network in a steady and sustainable state